GLOBAL EXPOSURE

Hospitality is a truly global sector and the content of our course is very internationally focused.

AN INTERNATIONAL DEPARTMENT

The KIT International LEADERS for Hospitality Management School welcomes international students. The international mix gives you exposure to a wide range of cultures, which reflects the nature of the hospitality industry and prepares you for an international career. This global reach is also reflected in the content of the course.

INTERNATIONAL WORK PLACEMENT

The hospitality industry is global and, as such, presents our students with the chance to undertake work placement positions all round the world.

INTERNATIONAL FIELD TRIPS

It's not just about theoretical learning, there are also opportunities to visit locations to explore social enterprise as a business model. Students gain experience in the field, learning how social enterprise can influence local communities and how tourism and hospitality organisations can be the driving force for social change.

Excellance in Teaching & Learning

KIT has an impressive international reputation as a principal provider of top level education.

We engage our students in real world activities so their learning is current and relevant.

You will learn through a combination of:

- > Lectures – formal introduction to new subjects
- > Seminars – in-depth discussions in small groups
- > Tutorials – individual meetings between you & your tutor
- > Projects and practical work – including field trips, consultancy, projects, debates, role plays and work experience.

SUPPORTING YOUR LEARNING

You will be part of a strong learning community that enables you to recognise and fulfil your potential; what you learn will be cutting-edge, reflecting the very best industry practice.
